The Perfect Church

I think that I shall never see
 A church that's all it ought to be;
 A church whose members never stray
 Beyond the straight and narrow way;
 A church that has no empty pews
 Whose preacher never has the blues;
 A Church whose deacons always "deak"
 And non is proud and all are meek,
 Where gossips never peddle lies
 Or make complaints or criticize;
 Where all are always sweet and kind
 And all to others' faults are blind,
 Such perfect churches there may be,
 But none of them are known to me.
 But still we'll work and pray and plan
 To make this one the best we can.
